Homoeopathics for Animals:

This is a potentially beneficial concept for consideration by anyone who has animals. This treatment comes HIGHLY recommended by a cattle grazier and Polocrosse player who Rod has known and played with for years.

Rod is experimenting with it for his horse and some cattle he runs on a hobby farm.

The treatments are very inexpensive and if you'd like more information - go on to the Web page linked below and do some searches on particular things and/or sign up with them for e-mail newsletters.

The remedies are practical whether you have one animal or thousands of animals (for thousands of animals you can simply put some of the selected remedy into their water trough within a few hours of when the mob will be drinking).
